

Call/Walk-in Center: 540-433-3888 Website: www.hrcrc.org

6/07

Resource Listing for Disability Services

Arc/Op Shop (540)437-9214 www.hrarc.org

The Arc of Harrisonburg and Rockingham County Provides advocacy, support, and information for citizens with mental retardation and other developmental disabilities and their families. The Arc sponsors Op shop, a day support program with vocational components.

C.C. & Associates (540)430-3256

C.C. & Associates provides in-home residential support and community-based day support. The majority of the clients access services through a Medicaid Waiver.

Community Services Board (CSB) (540)434-1941 www.hrcsb.org

CSB provides a variety of services for individuals living with mental illness, mental retardation, or drug and alcohol abuse. Case management, counseling, residential support, and medication management are some of the available services.

Dayton Learning Center (DLC)

(540)879-2833 www.rockingham.k12.va.us/mtc/dlc.htm

DLC exists to meet the education and training needs of area adults. Adult Education includes basics skill, preparation for the GED, acquisition of a high-school diploma, or English as a second language. Training & Development provides a variety of workplace-related instruction.

Department for the Blind and Vision Impaired (DBVI)

(540)332-7729 1-800-622-2155 www.vdbvi.org

DBVI provides specialized training programs and services to assist persons of any age who are blind or visually impaired in achieving their maximum level of independent functioning in all aspects of life (school, home, work, etc).

Department for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (DDHH)

1-800-552-7917 www.vddhh.org

DDHH provides services to reduce and ultimately eliminate the communication barriers between persons who are deaf or hard of hearing and those who are hearing.

Department of Rehabilitative Services (DRS) (540)434-5981 www.vadrs.org

The Vocational Rehabilitation program helps individuals with disabilities get ready for, find, and keep a job. The agency has 36 offices across Virginia as well as Woodrow Wilson Rehabilitation Center, a residential training and medical rehabilitation facility.

Department of Social Services (DSS) (540)574-5100 www.dss.state.va.us
Harrisonburg Rockingham Social Services District provides a variety of programs and services to assist individuals and families in the community. Anyone with a need for food, financial, medical, daycare, child or adult protective services should contact the agency.

Friendship Industries, Inc. (540)434-9586 www.friendship-industries.com
Friendship Industries provides training, employment, and job placement for persons with disabilities, offering both on-site and off-site work experiences. Transportation is available.

Harrisonburg Transit (540)432-0492 www.hdpt.com
Harrisonburg Transit provides lift-equipped buses as well as a Para transit option for individuals who are not able to use the standard bus services. Curb to curb is available.

National Alliance for Mental Illness (NAMI) (540)434-8761 www.nami.org
NAMI promotes the interests of individuals with serious and persistent mental illness as well as their families. The local chapter hosts meetings for education and support.

Pleasant View, Inc. (540)896-8255 www.pleasantviewinc.com
Pleasant View provides housing, residential support, structured day programs, supported employment, and community access programs to people with mental retardation. The majority of the clients access services through a Medicaid Waiver.

Social Security Administration (SSA) 1-800-772-1213 www.ssa.gov
The Social Security Administration provides financial benefits to individuals with disabilities. Call for guidelines and qualifications.

Talking Book Center 1-800-995-6215 www.talkingbookcenter.org
Talking Book Center offers free general library service for anyone unable to use standard print material due to a visual or physical disability. The Talking Book Center lends books and magazines recorded in special format and the necessary player “postage free.”

Valley Associates for Independent Living, Inc. (VAIL)
(540)433-6513 www.govail.org
VAIL is a non-residential, private, non-profit Center for Independent Living that provides services for people with disabilities. Advocacy, independent living skills training, supported employment, information & referral, peer support, and Developmental Disability Waiver coordination are some of the services provided.

Valley Voice (540)568-3811 www.valleyvoice.org
Valley Voice is a free service, provided by public radio WMRA, which broadcasts reading of local, regional, and national newspapers, as well as magazines and other periodicals to individuals who have a visual, physical, or processing impairment.

Virginia Office of Protection & Advocacy (VOPA)
1-800-552-3962 www.vopa.state.va.us
VOPA is a legally based disability advocacy agency that assists with disability-related issues like abuse, neglect, and discrimination.